

Deen Dayal Chalit Aspatal, Madhya Pradesh

Introduction:

In Madhya Pradesh, Mobile Medical Units (MMUs) are operated under the Scheme named Deendayal Chalit Aspatal Yojna. The scheme is running under Public Private Partnership model. in which 123 units are contracted out to service providers on mutually agreed terms and conditions. MMU is a mobile hospital and provide healthcare & diagnostic services through qualified doctors, technician and nurse in far-flung areas of Madhya Pradesh. It also dispenses free drugs to patients. Another 8 Government owned MMUs are operated and managed by GVK EMRI in Vidisha parliamentary constituency, which is on cost reimbursement model.

Key Objective:

- To provide basic curative and RCH services to the tribal and other deprived population living in far-flung locations.
- To provide free checkup, treatment and investigation facilities to the underprivileged groups of the society at their doorstep.
- To provide free antenatal checkup to tribal women by qualified physician.
- To provide health education and information to tribal community living in remote areas.
